

Workshop: Personalized Labor Market Policy

Organized by the
UCPH Research Unit Behavioral Economics and Labor Market Performance and the
IZA Research Team Personalized Labor Policy

March 04-06, 2020
Konventum, Helsingør

Program

Wednesday, March 04

- 14:15 Steffen Altmann & Alexander Sebald: Welcome
- 14:30 – 15:00 Alexander Sebald: “The UCPH Research Unit: Behavioral Economics and Labor Market Performance”
- 15:00 Coffee Break
- 15:00 – 16:30 Daphne Skandalis: “The determinants of individual job search behavior and their consequences on employment outcomes”
- Simon Trenkle: “Evidence on Job-Search Models from a Survey of Unemployed Workers”
- 16:30 Break
- 17:00 – 18:30 Jonas Radbruch: “Interview Sequences and the Formation of Subjective Assessments”
- Marc Witte: “Hiring cost, firm growth, and inclusive labour markets”
- 19:00 Dinner

Thursday, March 05

- 09:00 – 10:30 Robert Mahlstedt: “Unintended Consequences of Labor Market Policies”
- Amelie Schiprowski: “Job Search Requirements, Effort Provision and Labor Market Outcomes”
- 10:30 Coffee Break
- 11:00 – 12:30 Ideas Session I
- 12:30 Lunch
- 13:30 – 15:30 Hike

16:00 Coffee Break
16:30 – 18:00 Sofie Cairo: “Complexity and the Effectiveness of Public Policy”
Maria Balgova: “Firm Demand for Flexible Employment: Evidence from 60 Million Job Adverts”
19:00 Dinner

Friday, March 06

09:00 – 10:30 Ideas Session II
11:30 Lunch Snack and Departure

Participants: Steffen Altmann (IZA and UCPH)
Maria Balgova (IZA)
Sofie Cairo (UCPH)
Nikolaj Harmon (UCPH)
Robert Mahlstedt (UCPH)
Jonas Radbruch (IZA)
Amelie Schiprowski (University of Bonn)
Alexander Sebald (UCPH)
Daphné Skandalis (New York Fed)
Simon Trenkle (IZA)
Marc Witte (NYU Abu Dhabi)